HGTV to feature Local Realtor Mike Roach in “Kickin’ Back on Lake Keowee” TV Episode

The show is an episode of their Lakefront Bargain Hunt series and will initially air on Sunday May 10th at 8 pm. While on site the producers and film crew took hours of video, both aerial and land based that are sure to be breathtaking.

The storyline of the program follows Mike Roach of Top Guns Realty as he takes Tim and Tina Gorman of Charleston, SC on a search around Lake Keowee for a reasonably priced second home. Some homes are too cold, some are too hot, but hopefully one will turn out to be just right. The episode will include numerous panoramic perspectives that our beautiful Lake Keowee has to offer which will no doubt give the entire area an abundance of favorable national exposure.
